

Pre-Assessment (H.S.)

NAME:

DATE:

GRADE:

SCHOOL:

1. Explain what is meant by an existential threat and give at least two examples:

2. Explain how technology can have both a positive and negative impact upon humanity:

3. Define the word and explain the need for sustainability planet wide:

4. Analyze the relationship between energy, food production and water on a global scale and show an understanding of their interconnectedness:

5. Consider some of the character traits of people who create change in the world and suggest what might inspire them to take action:

6. What are some of your most important values? Where in our community, nation, and/or world do you see them lived out and where do you not see them lived out?

Post-Assessment (H.S.)

NAME:

DATE:

GRADE:

SCHOOL:

1. Explain what is meant by an existential threat and give at least two examples:

2. Explain how technology can have both a positive and negative impact upon humanity:

3. Define the word and explain the need for sustainability planet wide:

4. Analyze the relationship between energy, food production and water on a global scale and show an understanding of their interconnectedness:

5. Consider some of the character traits of people who create change in the world and suggest what might inspire them to take action:

6. What are some of your most important values? Where in our community, nation, and/or world do you see them lived out and where do you not see them lived out?

One World Youth Club Reflection

NAME:

DATE:

GRADE:

SCHOOL:

As our One World Youth Club comes to an end, it is a wonderful time to reflect on this year and how much we have grown and changed. Think about it: How has being a member of One World Youth Club changed you as a person?

Write about it:

- What is the most important skill or concept you learned from your One World Youth Club?
- How has One World Club helped you grow as a person and in what areas?
- Do you see yourself as a “global citizen”?
- How will you continue to apply the concepts and skills you have learned in your everyday life?
- Would you recommend the One World Youth Club to a friend? Why or why not

My Reflection...
